

Explorers Creativity Club LARPing Summer Camp

Character Analysis Worksheet

Name

Character

1. Character Facts—Find out...

What does the character think about him/herself?

What do other characters think or say about your character?

What are the physical actions of your character (i.e. walk with a limp, etc)

Conclusions:

2. Biography/Autobiography of character—Character Questions

How old am I?

What is my height? What do I think about it? How does it affect me?

What is my weight? What do I think about it? How does it affect me?

Do I have any habits?

Am I afraid? Brave? Shy? Aggressive?

from Diana Turner, RGES Theater Director

Explorers Creativity Club LARPing Summer Camp

What is my relationship to my environment? Do I like it? Hate it?

What is my education?

What was my childhood like?

What are my fears?

What are my dreams?

Who are my heroes? Who are my enemies?

What is my occupation? Do I like my job?

What lies do I believe?

What are my morals? What do I believe in?

What makes me mad/happy?

What do I worry about myself?

from Diana Turner, RGES Theater Director

Explorers Creativity Club LARPing Summer Camp

Do other people like me? If so, why? If not, why?

3. Physical Aspects—

Major mannerisms/gestures

Eye color

Hair color

Clothes you wear

4. Check the values that best describe your character's personality.

Helpful

Esteemed

Calm

Relaxed

Worrying

Popular

Exciting

Sentimental

Polite

Assertive

Adventurous

Dynamic

Patient

Wholesome

Energetic

Conscientious

Unassuming

Escapist

Sophisticated

Likable

Generous

Persistent

Agreeable

Unobtrusive

Earnest

Gregarious

Daring

Outstanding

Docile

Tolerant

Sympathetic

Demanding

Nice

Loyal

Charitable

Compelling

Self-starter

Persuasive

Resolute

Conventional

Careful

Tranquil

Eloquent

Satisfied

Cultured

Cynical

Understanding

Dominant

from Diana Turner, RGES Theater Director

Explorers Creativity Club LARPing Summer Camp

5. Fantasy based:

What class are they? Write below which class you choose: Warrior, Thief, Wizard, or Healer.

What race?

6. Write a descriptive paragraph of your character:

from Diana Turner, RGES Theater Director